Death of Mrs. Slattery.

Mrs. Fanny Slattery of this city died very suddenly at Rhinelander on Friday, having left here about three weeks ago for the purpose of visiting at the home of her son, M. J. Slattery, at that point.

Mrs. Slattery was seventy-six years of age, and when she left here less than a month ago was in the best of health, and the news of her sudden death was a great surprise to her friends and relatives in this city, where she had lived for many years.

The remains arrived in this city on Saturday and the funeral was held on Monday from the Catholic church, Rev. B. H. Henschel officiating.

Mrs. Slattery is survived by eleven children, five boys and six girls, they being William of Rhinelander, John of Quebec, Michael J. of Rhinelander and Thomas of Atlanta, and Mrs. Dennis McCarthy of Quebec, Mrs. John Murphy, Mrs. John Henry and Mrs. Thomas Doyle of Rhinelander and Miss Nora Slattery of this city.

The relatives from Quebec were unable to attend on account of the distance, and Mr. Slattery of Rhinelander was also unable to come on account of the serious illness of his child.

Young Runaways.

A remarkable case came to the attention of the police on Thursday of last week when officer Gibson received word from Wausau to the effect that two young girls from that city had run away from home and would probably pass through this city, and for the police to look out for them.

Mr. Gibson made inquiries and discovered that the parties he was in search of were on their way to this city and he found them on the St. Paul tracks a short distance from town.

The two girls were Lola and Alva Smith and when the officer accosted them, they denied any knowledge of what he was driving at, but later admitted that they were the parties that were wanted but claimed that they were 18 and 15 years of age and could leave home if they wanted to. However, Mr. Gibson took them in charge and put them aboard a train that evening for Wausau.

When questioned as to why they had left home, they stated that they were going to Minneapolis to live with a sister and that they had left home without any reason other than that they wanted to live at Minneapolis.

They had walked from Wausau as far as Schofield, then had a ride on the cars as far as Rudolph and had walked from Rudolph to this city. They were neatly and well dressed and apparently imagined that they could make their way to Minneapolis without trouble. Before leaving, the older girl stated that their reason for leaving home was that their parents could not buy them the kind of clothes they wanted.

Will Have a Leader.

At the meeting of the city council on Wednesday evening the city fathers appropriated the sum of $50 per month, so that the local band might be able to hire a competent leader to conduct the organization in the future. The boys have been in communication with Prof. Bliss who formerly led the Second Regiment band at Marshfield and it is their expectation to secure the services of this gentleman to conduct the band here. Mr. Bliss is a good man and should put our band in a condition to furnish the people with good music.

The day has gone by when an ordinary country band of ten or twelve men will furnish the music wanted by the public and the only way to do the thing properly is to have a man at the head of the organization who is making a life work of the business.

School Meeting a Success.

This school board convention held in this city last Wednesday was an unqualified success. County Superintendent Morris reports that there were 131 registered at the meeting, these being men from throughout the county who are serving as school officers in one capacity or another. Besides those there were a large number in attendance who are not school officers, were glad to listen to the addresses delivered by the speakers of the occasion.

Not only was the meeting a success from the standpoint of attendance, but those from out of town spoke very highly of the affair and said that the instruction they received on that occasion was worth a great deal to them as school officers.

Foresters Will Entertain.

The Catholic Foresters will entertain the lodge members and their ladies at a social on Wednesday evening, Nov. 21st. There will also be music, recitations etc., after which there will be a social hop. Light refreshments will be served.

At the Lutheran church in the town of Kellner Wednesday, Rev. Krasche joined in the holy bonds of wedlock, Miss M. Schuman and Gustave Heike, both residents of the town of Grand Rapids where they have many friends. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heike, of the town of Grand Rapids, and is well known in this city where he numbers a host of friends. They will make their home on a farm near Kellner.

The east side ladies aid society of the M. E. church will give a ten cent supper at the church parlors on Friday evening of this week previous to the lecture course entertainment that evening. Supper will be served from 5 o'clock on. It is the intention to continue these suppers every evening on which there is one of these entertainments.

LOCALS WIN AGAIN.

Stevens Point Defeated by Score of 11 to 0 by High School Team From This City.

In an exciting game of football played at Stevens Point Saturday between the Stevens Point High school team and the local High school team, the latter won by a score of 11 to 0. The game was marred by frequent interruptions, was one of the most exciting seen at Stevens Point this season.

The Stevens Point boys were somewhat lighter than our sturdy bunch of fellows, but nevertheless they put up a snappy determined game, using almost exclusively the forward pass and fake formations which fooled our boys part of the first half, but after the first ten minutes of play, Stevens Point was unable to make their required 10 yards in three downs, being forced to punt whenever they got possession of the ball which was not very often, while our boys made their gains by straight football, forcing the Stevens Point team down the field slowly but surely.

Stevens Point won the toss. Grand Rapids kicked to Stevens Point downing them on their 35 yard line. They failed to gain, the ball going to Grand Rapids who made their first ten yards by plunges thru the line by Arpin, Crowns and Corcoran. Then they sent Voyer around for a first down, but no sooner had the ball been called dead when five or six rule books in the hands of as many Stevens Pointers were showed to the officials, and rule "16" (b) pointed out which provides that a player is put offside if the ball in play has been touched by one of his own side behind him. This was evidently what the Stevens Pointers were waiting for, for it cut out the use of the line men for the purpose of carrying the ball, thereby depriving Grand Rapids of two of their best ground gaining formations, their tackle plays.

The ball then went to Stevens Point who made a spectacular 45 yard run around Grand Rapids left end but as the ball was carried by a player put offside by rule "16" (b), it was taken back to where the play was started from and given to Grand Rapids, squaring matters concerning the first enforcement of rule "16" (b). Then by straight football the locals finally carried the ball over for a touchdown, Arpin being the one chosen to carry it over. Chose failed to kick goal, Grand Rapids kicked off to Stevens Point downing them on their own 20 yard line. They failed to gain, punting to Grand Rapids who advanced the ball to Stevens Point's 15 yard line, there being held for downs. Stevens Point then took the ball but was forced back 10 yards in two downs, attempting to punt on the last down, the man down back for the punt fumbled the ball and was downed behind his own goal line by Voyer and Smith, thereby giving Grand Rapids a safety which counts 2 points. This was the last score of the first half as time was called shortly after.

The second half was started by Stevens Point kicking off to Grand Rapids who advanced the ball up to Stevens Point's 5 yard line where they were held for downs, Stevens Point got the ball and punting out to Grand Rapids again took the ball up to Stevens Point's 15 yard line and from there Arpin sent a drop kick squarely over the goal making the final score of the game 11 to 0. The rest of the game was a punting duel with the ball changing hands in the center of the field, neither side having a chance to score.

Following is the lineup:
Grand Rapids: Damon 10, Katerndahl 10, G. Arpin 10, Baker 10, Smith 10, Maddy 10, Hill 10, Hagan 10, Voyer 10, Bell-Curran 10, Earley 10, Capps 10, Chose 10, Park 10, H. Arpin 10, Woodworth 10, Crowns 10, Bigelow 10, Corcoran 10, Cashin 10.
Referee—Kern; Umpire—F. A. T. Touchdown—Arpin. Goal from field Arpin, Safety Voyer, Smith. Time of halves—25 and 20.

McCarthy-Bever.

Miss Cella McCarthy and Mr. Ben Bever were married this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Peter and Paul church, Rev. R. Hugenroth performing the ceremony. They were attended by Miss Blomrose Slattery and Martin Bever, the latter being the groom's brother. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, and the young couple left on the noon train for the south, expecting to be absent a week or more, and upon their return they will make their home in this city.

Both of the contracting parties are well known in this city, the bride being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McCarthy, and a most estimable young lady. The groom is also well known, he being our efficient and obliging clerk of court, and he also has a large number of friends who are flaring on giving him a warm reception when he returns. The Tribune enters with these friends in extending congratulations.

The newly wedded couple will make their home at Minneca where Mr. Nobles is employed on the rail road.

Death Rate Light.

So far as we can be ascertained up to the present time the death rate among deer hunters has been rather lighter than has been the case for several years past during the first few days of the season. A few casualties have been reported, but not as many as is usual up to this time. Whether hunters are becoming more careful or that there is less to shoot at cannot be told.

Will Give a Charity Ball.

The Elks are figuring on a charity ball to be given at the opera house in the near future. The date has not been settled as yet, but it is expected that this part will be arranged within a few days. Then those who are anxious to donate something to charity will have a chance.

Meeting of Medical Association.

The Wood County Medical association held one of their meetings at the City Club rooms on Tuesday evening. Owing to the fact that many of the members were unable to attend the meeting was adjourned until the second Tuesday in December.

BURGLARS IN TOWN.

Safe Blowers Enter Brewery and Peter Christman's Place but Get Little Money.

Burglars entered the Elmer's brewery and the office of Peter Christman on Monday night and in both places the safes were forced with the aid of explosives, but so far as we can learn the total amount recovered was only $100. The burglars were the same who were taken from the vault in the brewery office.

The particulars of the burglary in the Elmer's brewery were given in the Tribune of Monday night and in the Elmer's office the burglars were also taken. The burglars were taken from the vault in the brewery office.

NEW ACHIEVEMENTS OF GREAT SURGEONS

Operations That Almost Seem Incredible Now Successfully Performed as a Matter of Course.

Most Recent Is the Work of Dr. Karl Garre of Berlin, in Which Devoted Mother Gave Part of Her Own Throat to Convert Her Idiot Daughter Into a Bright Little Girl.

New York.—Medical men here and abroad are awed with the consideration of the Berlin physician who has performed the details of a most daring and unusual surgical operation performed three or four weeks ago.

An idiot child, the six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Lena Wolf, a resident of Berlin, has been converted into an intelligent being by the process of grafting part of the mother's thyroid gland upon the child's pancreas. Reduced to plainer language, this means that part of the mother's throat has been transferred by the grafting process to a gland in the child's back of the stomach.

By this operation the child, inactive before, has become active, and the mother of Lena Wolf has been awarded so that it is now performing the duties for which it was intended.

This is the history of medical science, without a parallel, and only because such an operation was never performed before, but also because of its peculiar character. The idea of grafting part of the throat of a mother to the pancreas gland of her child with the expectation of converting the child from an idiot to a normal, mental condition would seem at first glance unworthy of serious consideration. But Dr. Karl Garre, professor of surgery in the medical faculty of Breslau university, to whom the operation is credited, did exactly what has been described above, and recent dispatches from Berlin declare that the operation has been pronounced a complete success.

Professor Garre is an eminent German surgeon whose success in the transplanting of organs from one animal to another and even from the lower animals to human beings, has attracted the attention and admiration of surgical men all over the world. When his report of how he changed Lena Wolf from an idiot to a bright and intelligent little girl is considered it will form a valuable addition to the list of modern miracles of surgery.

From the details of this case already received from Germany it appears that Lena Wolf was born an idiot six years ago, says the New York World. Her mother never doubted for her as in other babies. She had come into the world without an apparent spark of intelligence and seemed doomed to pass her whole life without knowing the joys and sorrows of living.

Her case was called to the attention of Professor Garre, who was interested from the very beginning, because it is by no means a possibility of being able to prove the correctness of a theory on which he had been at work. This involved the probable action or influence that certain substances or secretions found in the ductless glands of the human body have upon the blood.

It is the blood, as everybody knows, that feeds the brain, keeping it active and clear and in good working order. If the blood is thin or sluggish the brain is dead to reason that fact. The great German surgeon knew that the thyroid gland was the source of the blood.

Several operations were tried, but with no good results. The membranes of the eyes were punctured, but they immediately closed again over the openings like sheet rubber when a hole is made in it.

Dr. John A. Price, chief surgeon of the ophthalmic department of the German Poliklinik, took charge of the case, performing three operations in February, March and April, 1904. The third one restored the sight to the left eye. The right eye remained stone blind until two weeks ago, when he performed a most unusual and successful operation upon it.

He first made a peculiarly shaped part of the mother's thyroid gland, pointed and the upper blade blunt. This instrument he inserted through look of superior mentality. In real life she may look like nothing in particular, but judged by her placid expression, her capable of writing a dictionary, with a few novels and love poems on the side.

This is a clever trick of the modern photographer. And it is not confined to his depiction of the human countenance; he can do much along the same line with the beasts of the field. In a recent issue of a famous magazine there were the portraits of several cows. Now, a cow is not an animal of particularly intelligent appearance, despite the mellow, goo-goo expression in the eyes of the average cow. But in these portraits the photographer had managed somehow to secure a simulation of intelligence to the bovine countenance that was truly remarkable. Especially in the case of one benevolent looking, white-faced creature with lagging horns was there a happy result. The firm upper lip, the strong, imperious nose and the intellectuality of the calm, reflective eye combined to give this animal the look of a statesman. If a cow like this were to be encountered in real an incision in the corner made at the top. Pushing the point down through the pupil, with the sharp blade he punctured the opaque membrane of the lens capsule and cut it squarely in two. The task of the surgeon was to cut so delicately and precisely as to divide the obstruction and let the light into the eye again.

The operation was entirely successful. The dead lens matter remains in the eye and on either side of the pupil a speck of the opaque substance can yet be seen. This in time may be absorbed.

Some Surgical Marvels. Philadelphia and Toledo, Ohio, have recently contributed to the list of marvels of surgery through operations on the brains of incorrigible and mentally defective boys. A still more recent case is that of Carl Fredericks, aged nine years, of No. 200 Clinton street, Hoboken. He is under observation at the Itawva Reformatory preparatory to the practical reconstruction of his brain.

The doctors say the boy's brain is so peculiarly constructed that it prevents him from being good for more than an hour at a time. The head is of abnormal shape, the skull coming to a point. The ears are small and protruding, and the eyes are as sharp as a needle.

Scientific surgery is gradually solving the problem of making us over. Raymond Moore, aged 20, of Baltimore, lost the sixth and seventh ribs on the right side. Dr. Hamilton Brown replaced them with artificial ribs of hard rubber tubing.

It is an operation at Fordham Hospital, Joseph Kelsch, a workman, was supplied with a silver windpipe to replace the original, which had been damaged beyond repair by a hard fall.

Dr. Kalsinsky, the famous Russian surgeon, recently astonished the medical world by furnishing a man with artificial arteries. The operation took place at the Kaiser's private laboratory at St. Petersburg. The patient, a very rich farmer and cattle raiser, Ivan Polinskasky by name, had collapsed violently with a stump while driving in a sleigh. He was hurried out and impaled upon a broken branch.

The largest piece of wood struck him below the hip joint and crunched down for about four inches. The wound was an exceedingly ugly one. It was directly over and in line with the femoral artery, which supplies the entire leg with blood. Dr. Kalsinsky saved Polinskasky's life by removing the injured part of the femoral artery and replacing it with an artificial one.

The Berlin surgeon, Dr. Seyfried, has succeeded in giving a man a new top for his skull, made from the skull of an ox.

Restored to Rationality. At Stamford, Conn., a unique operation on the skull of the two-year-old son of Michael Gunther has given the boy rationality. The child was born with a mental and physical defect and began to show, when a year old, signs of general deficiency in all his senses. It was finally determined by the surgeons interested in the case to explore the child's skull.

Dr. J. T. Higgins, of New York, assisted by Drs. Whitehorn and Hogan, of New York, and Howell and Leach, of Stamford, performed the operation at Stamford Hospital a few months ago. They removed a strip of bone from the skull three inches long and one-half inch wide, to give the brain a chance to grow. Immediately on recovering from the anaesthesia, a look of normal intelligence showed in the child's eyes, proving the theory of the doctors that the skull had been pressing unduly on the brain. With the pressure relieved, the brain was free to exert itself. The doctors believe the boy will soon be able to talk and act as rationally as the brightest of his little playmates.

Dr. Guthrie and Dr. Carrell, of the University of Chicago, have been making a series of remarkable experiments in surgery. Hearts of dogs have been successfully moved up into the animals' necks and there performed their functions. The circulation of blood in canines has been reversed without causing the animals any apparent inconvenience.

"What we have learned," said Dr. Carrell a short time ago, "gives us hope that some day we may replace wounded and worn-out hearts in human beings with the healthy, youthful and strong hearts of living monkeys."

A recent dispatch from Milan described a wonderful surgical operation there by Dr. Monti. A workman had been murderously assaulted, a knife in the hand of an assassin actually piercing his heart. He was attended by surgeons who cut a way through his breast to reach the wounded heart. Three stitches were required to close the wound, which had almost entirely healed five days after the operation.

To restore sight to the blind eyes of William Holman, of Washington, the specialists at the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital have grafted the transparent membrane of a Belgian hare's eyeballs to Holman's eyes. The most recent reports on this operation indicate that it is going to be a success.

C. A. McCartney, a young contractor of Pasadena, has survived the unusual experience of having his heart and lungs exposed, washed, mended and replaced. He was injured last June by falling from a bicycle upon the upturned prongs of a hayrack. He is almost as well as ever.

At the Harper Hospital, Detroit, Dr. H. O. Walker has succeeded in giving a 12-year-old boy a new shin bone taken from the leg of a dog.

Downfall of Biermurg. A. C. Jones, the prohibition candidate for the governorship of South Carolina, upbraided in a speech in Columbia the unexampled cruelty of the Russian terrorists.

"If it was themselves," said Mr. Jones. "If it was their own wives and families, their own little children! Then they'd sing a different song before all that blood and horror."

"Whenever I think of the terrorists of Russia I am reminded of another terrible thing I know in my boyhood. This man wore a red necktie and long hair. He sat day and night in a chance to grow. Immediately on recovering from the anaesthesia, a look of normal intelligence showed in the child's eyes, proving the theory of the doctors that the skull had been pressing unduly on the brain. "He was making a speech on the corner," said Peter, "and just as he was offering to lead the mob that was waiting with blood to his waist a little dog got away from a lady and bit him on the ankle and the poor fellow fainted dead away."

Argentina. No Home for Boers. Many of the Boers who migrated to Argentina have returned to South Africa. Most of those still in Argentina are saving up their money for the purchase of homestead tickets.

This is a society love story of the time of the Cave Men, a story of the prime of the Paleolithic age. Jewels appeal wonderfully to some women of the present and the same women of the past. Little Toes, belle of the clan of Cave Men who lived among the rocks by the White Barn.

Tarns are not usually white, it is true; in fact we commonly think of a tarn as some dismal body of water, lonely and fearful, but this one, though really a tarn, isolated and alone, was light because it had sandy bottom, and its waters were clear because it was doubtless connected by some underground channel with the not very distant sea.

A happy lot of cave people, as cave people went, were those making up the clan which lived beside the tarn, fishing in its depths and hunting in the Green Forest, and the society was really very fine. So some of the cave people must, necessarily, have rival admirers, and among them, and altogether leading the others, were Big Bow and Cross Eyes. Big Bow was easily the most successful fisherman and hunter in the tribe, and a somewhat goodly man to look upon. Cross Eyes was a moderate success in the pursuit of food, either on land or water, and he acquitted prodigiously.

Somewhat unfortunately for Cross Eyes had thus far progressed this arduous wooing. Big Bow, mighty fisherman and hunter, brought daily spoils to the feet of Little Toes, and something more than an object to her young lady, who had a healthy appetite, but by her father and mother, who chanced to be people not oversteering to grapple with the problem of existence. Cross Eyes did the best he could, but he brought less sustenance to his admirer, and as his admirer was Big Bow was the less probable man of the two. But the case of Cross Eyes was, as being foremost in the famous chase and fight, it was a magnificent thing.

Few words had Big Bow. He laid the fawn at the feet of Little Toes and then he spread out upon the ground before her the great bear skin.

The rules of dress of the cave men and women of the time were becoming rather severe. For instance, it was considered desirable that both gentlemen and ladies always wear something in public. This, as a rule, consisted of a single skin garment, worn over one shoulder and under the other, and in case of the more rigidly conventional, belted at the waist. This admirable garb, of course, left the neck bare. It afforded a magnificent opportunity for the display of jewelry, but the only jewelry ever worn by a cave belle up to this time had consisted of a necklace of red berries strung upon some grassy fiber. Such a necklace could last for but the passing hour. It was a transient thing. Such as it was, though, it was much affected by the flirtatious Little Toes, as she did love to adorn herself.

It fell upon a day that Cross Eyes was wandering, ill-mooded, far from the maddening crowd, along the banks of a turbulent creek which came tumbling down from the hills to enter the enticing depths of the White Tarn. This was his meditative afternoon with a vengeance. He recognized, in fact, that Big Bow was far ahead of him in the race for permanent possession of Little Toes. He realized that the other man was decidedly the better hunter and better fisherman, and the additional fact that the qualities of purveyor and provider were then considered in a room of the tribe as the measure of a man's worth.

He strode up and down the little bench where the creek hurried itself laughingly over a wonderful bed of shells and pebbles into the broad waters. It was seeking, and, finally, sat himself down upon a rock and thought most dimly. He thought of Little Toes as he had seen her, and how graceful as the slim wood leopard, gliding merrily about the temporary necklace of red berries showing a line of contrasting color against her smooth, brown neck. He would like, he thought, to see a necklace always there, though what it did matter to him that Little Toes could never be for him.

His eyes rested, at first unseeing, upon the creek's margin, where was a blaze of coloring, a glittering iridescence, as the sun's rays struck upon the tossed-up shells of a brightly plumed mollusk, and the many pebbles of clear white, brought down from the rocky heights above. He thought vaguely of the resemblance, save in glitter, of the bright objects in the water and the red berries about the throat of Little Toes. Then, dimly at first, and then more definitely, there came to him a suggestion which grew into an inspiration. His face brightened, and he leaped from his seat and into the water. Up and down the shore he ran, gathering pink shells and snowy pebbles. He filled his wolfskin pouch with them. Then, as strenuously as if upon the hunt, he ran toward the village as the rocks and into his own particular cave. He was a conqueror of very great idea, and into which, in the crowded centuries since, has won many a soft hand and shaken many an oriental kingdom.

Looking Forward. The young man had just screwed up the corner to the point of asking the old man for the hand of his daughter in marriage.

"Have you given any thought to the future?" asked the old man.

"Oh, yes," answered the young man. "I joined the church last winter." Chicago Daily News.

In the first eight months of 1905 one trans-Pacific trade amounted to $197,731,041. In the same period of the current year we exported to that market only $126,679,968 worth of goods. The Japanese victory over Russia in the far east seems to have been a commercial triumph over us as well.

NEW YORK LEADERS ASK COUNT OF VOTES

Republicans Want Courts to Order Production of All Void and Protested Ballots, While Democrats Meet to Devise Means to Protect Interests of State Ticket.

Electoral returns show that the next congress will be Republican in both houses. The political complexion of the senate shows a Republican gain of one in Colorado. There are two or three close legislative contests, but they are chiefly between individuals, and the senate will stand nearly as at present, with 58 Republicans and 42 Democrats, leaving a Republican majority of 16.

The returns indicate a majority of 26 in the house. The Republicans have a majority of about 22, which is a majority of 41 over the Democrats.

HEARST IS ONLY LOSER.

Rest of Fusion Ticket Appears to Be Elected in New York.

New York.—Both parties are preparing to demand a recount of ballots. Already counted, the situation offers vast possibilities of infinite complications if the courts take in hand the work of ascertaining out the result of the election.

Applications will at once be made by the Republican campaign managers in the supreme courts of all adjoining counties for orders compelling the production in court of all void and protested ballots.

Chairman of the Democratic state committee issued a call for a full committee meeting to "discuss means to protect the interests of the state ticket."

From telegrams it is plain that the Republican machine is reacting to its old defeat. There is in order to be no mistake. There is no doubt that the returns are being held back. We are going to get an honest count of the vote.

The latest returns indicate the following result of the vote for candidates for state offices other than governor:

Charles, lieutenant governor, 3,395.
Whelan, secretary of state, 6,522.
Jackson, attorney general, 3,359.
Hansen, treasurer, 5,339.
Glynn, controller, 8,643.
Skeels, state engineer, 10,376.

Hughes' plurality for governor is now placed at 50,435.

The vote in Greater New York shows that Hearst was slashed unmercifully by the Democrats. He ran so far behind the rest of his colleagues on the Democratic ticket that his defeat looms up all the larger.

By Hearst by from 6,000 to 8,000, and Richmond (Ston Island) has also given the Democratic candidate a plurality.

William R. Hearst has had little to say since his defeat. He showed a cheerful front to callers that went to his home in Lexington avenue to congratulate him on making a good fight, anyway, and put in several hours reading telegrams from all parts of the state and all over the country to the same effect.

He has refused to follow Chairman Thuesen's loud cry of "Fraud!" and "Robbery!" and "stands pat" on the statement he issued, which counts defeat, and is eternally a promise to abide by the result.

Hearst to Continue Fight.

At 3:15 Wednesday morning Mr. Hearst made the following statement:

"In view of the result I have only to repeat what I said in my speeches. I am entitled in this fight against the control of the government by the trusts and corrupt corporations, and I will fight it to the end."

He will serve in the lead or in the ranks, just exactly as the people desire, and as earnestly and loyally to one place as in the other. The people have decided to retain the Republican party in power. I will make my fight in the ranks, and as a private citizen, do my best to promote the interests of my fellow citizens."

Hearst Carries Brooklyn.

In Brooklyn, where Senator Patrick H. McCarran made a bitter fight against Hearst, the latter carried the borough by a small plurality, probably 4,000. At one time it seemed that Hearst had been successful in Brooklyn, but the late returns were all strongly in favor of the Democratic candidate.

Mr. Hearst has been given a majority of nearly 70,000 in Manhattan and the Bronx, Queens county, which includes Long Island city, has gone from 6,000 to 8,000, and Richmond (Ston Island) has also given the Democratic candidate a plurality.

give Harris a plurality of nearly 2,000 and that the official returns will give him over 3,000. The eight counties still missing are in the western part of the state. The Republican figures are partially confirmed by special press dispatches.

Marion county, Hoch's home, was carried by Harris by a majority of 139 votes, while Douglas county, Col. Harris' home was carried by Gov. Hoch by a majority of 130.

Aside from the head of the ticket, there is no question as to the election of the entire Republican ticket.

Big Democratic gains have been made in the lower house of the legislature, but that body will still be overwhelmingly Republican, and a member of the dominating party will be elected United States senator to succeed A. W. Benson, who himself is a candidate for reelection.

Other candidates are Congressman Charles Curtis, of the First district, and Joseph L. Bristow, formerly fourth assistant postmaster general, who won prominence a few years ago, by his activity in suppressing postal frauds.

REPUBLICANS HAVE INDIANA.

Entire State Ticket and Legislature Won by Party.

Indianapolis.—Republicans have elected their entire state ticket in Indiana by an estimated majority of between 40,000 and 50,000. The next legislature will be Republican.

Republicans have elected six congressmen in the First, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth and Thirteenth districts. The Democrats have elected two, in the Third and Fourth districts.

Frederick Landis, Republican candidate for congress in the Eleventh district, is defeated, his Democratic opponent, J. A. M. Adair being elected by 1,800. The defeat of George W.

Great interest centered here in New York in the campaign waged for the judiciary ticket named by a committee of lawyers, headed by Joseph H. Choate and former Judge Alton B. Tucker. The Tammany and Independent League joint ticket has won over the Republican candidates by big pluralities.

State Senator Thomas F. Grady, of Tammany hall, has been re-elected over Thomas Rock, who has been known in the campaign as "Eight-hour" Rock, and who claimed he had been "tricked" by the Independence League.

Throughout the state there has been a notable falling off in the vote from 1904, which was a presidential year. The Republican ticket showed the greatest loss in this respect, especially in the cities.

In claiming the election of Mr. Hughes by a large plurality, Republican State Chairman Woodruff said: "I knew all along we had lost the labor vote. Every possible thing was done to recover it, but I think without avail."

DAVIDSON WINS IN WISCONSIN.

Entire Republican Ticket Elected by Good Pluralities.

Milwaukee.—The entire Republican state ticket was elected in Wisconsin by pluralities of 50,000 and more.

Indications are that ten Republican congressmen have been elected in 11 districts, and that the next legislature is overwhelmingly Republican. Most of the counties report the election of Republican county officers.

Returns show Gov. Davidson ran ahead of his ticket and that Connor was defeated considerably.

The situation in some of the congressional districts is close, but indications are that the Republicans are on the verge of a hard fight.

In the Third district, in fact, in whom scratched Congressman Babcock, former congressional chairman, and supported the Democratic nominee, J. H. Murphy. Babcock probably has been defeated, Murphy's plurality is estimated at from 300 to 400.

GOV. HOCH REELECTED.

Later Returns Show Republican Candidate Ahead in Kansas.

Gov. E. W. Hoch, Republican, became reasonably certain, although the Democratic committee still claims the state for William A. Harris by a plurality of 3,300. According to figures received by the Republican committee, 97 counties out of 105 give Hoch a plurality of 4,150. The Democrats claim that their figures on the same counties

Cromer in the Eighth also is conceded by Republicans, and the election of Watson in the Sixth is in doubt. Governor 3,000 in his own county.

The Republican state ticket carried several Democratic strongholds, which elected Democratic county and legislative tickets, and in other places the opposite was true. The vote in the state was surprisingly light. In Indianapolis not more than two-thirds of the full vote was polled and the shrinkage was largely in the Republican wards.

The Democrats have elected the prosecuting attorney and probably the auditor in Marion county. Republican majorities have been returned from the figures of two years ago.

MICHIGAN 100,000 REPUBLICAN.

Gov. Warner Re-elected by a Large Plurality.

Detroit.—Gov. Fred M. Warner and the entire Republican state ticket are re-elected by what will probably be the largest plurality ever given a state ticket in Michigan. Warner's plurality, based on present returns, will exceed 100,000, with the rest of the ticket slightly lower.

The Republicans also elect a solid delegation to congress, with hardly a semblance of a contest. In fact, in four of the congressional districts the Democrats did not take the trouble to nominate a candidate.

The state legislature is almost solidly Republican, with the possible exception of two or three men. This legislature the coming winter will choose a United States senator to succeed Russell A. Alger. Three prominent France's Last American Colony.

Some 60 miles off the southern coast of Newfoundland lies the last remnant of the British empire of the North America—three islands, small, rocky and barren, that are, nevertheless, important as the center of the French cod fisheries and because of the settlement associated with them as a bit of group over which the tricolor may continue to fly. The colony is administered by a governor, and has a deputy in the French chamber.

Courts' Ventilation Perfect.

London's new central criminal courts will have a perfect system of ventilation, by which 20,000,000 cubic feet of fresh air will be forced into the building each hour, and there is not to be a fly in the whole building.

Solomon Gompers, father of Samuel, the president of the American Federation of Labor, lives in Roxbury, Mass. He is 78 years old, and has been totally blind for nine years.

Railroad Tubes Almost Ready.

Now that both the tubes of the Pennsylvania railway under the Hudson river at New York are open from bank to bank, it remains to place steady screw piles under the tunnels, to line them with lay track and conduits in them. Many months will elapse before they are ready for use.

Primitive Farming Implement.

The only farming implement in use on the island of Guam is a hoe used like our scumming hoe.

Wonders of Nature.

As a weaver, nature produces fine work. Certain tree barks and leaves furnish excellent cloth, as for instance, the famous tapa cloth used in the South Sea Islands. Nature is a glassmaker, too. By discharging her lightning into beds of quartz and she makes exquisite little pipes of glass.

Salute English Flag.

Pupils in the English national schools are being taught the American custom of saluting the flag. But they do so on national anniversaries only. April 23, St. George's day, the pupils in one of the schools sang patriotic songs, while 50 of the pupils accompanied on the violin.

Author's Son a Ranch Owner.

George Hughes, the only son of Thomas Hughes, famous as the author of "Tom Brown at Oxford," is the owner of a large ranch in Kansas.

Candidates Cost Him Money.

A farmer near Muscatine, Kan., who had a big sale of cattle, estimates that the candidates who were present caused him to lose $250. When a man would be about persuaded into buying a hog, some candidate would walk up to him and say, "Bill, I want to see you a minute."

Railroad Fare Restricted.

The legislature of Washington passed a law making the maximum railroad fare for adults three cents a mile and for children 1 1/2 cents.

OFFERS A NEW FRANCHISE.

Kenosha Council Turns Down Electric Line's Propositions.

Kenosha.—All railway franchise ordinances which have been before the council of Kenosha for the last seven months have been returned to the promoters and the city council committee in charge of the railway business has decided to draw up a measure which meets its demands and send the same to the companies interested. The committee will demand that the companies agree to divide profits with the city, and that the city be granted reduced fares to laboring men during certain hours of the day. Added to this the company to whom the franchise is granted will be forced to agree to reduce all fares to three cents 20 years after the passage of the ordinance. It is not thought that the ordinance as proposed will be accepted by either the Chicago, Kenosha & Milwaukee, or the Kenosha Electric railway.

BOOM LA CROSSE AUDITORIUM.

Interstate Fair Association Offers Aid if Building is Placed on Grounds.

La Crosse.—A proposition whereby La Crosse may have an auditorium large enough to accommodate any convention has been made by directors of the La Crosse Interstate Fair association to the building committee of the city. The proposition is that the various standing societies donate $5,000 toward the project and the fair association will supply the balance. The only stipulation is that the building be erected upon the fair grounds and that the association be allowed to use it for exposition purposes.

Advance Price of Paper.

Appleton.—Wrapping and other paper manufacturers have raised another advance in the price of their product and this stock throughout the middle west and east will sell for 15 cents per 100 pounds more than formerly. It is only four weeks ago when manufacturers of this stock met in New York and decided upon an advance of 25 cents per 100, each manufacturer signing an agreement to sell his product lower than the quoted price. Despite this big advance, the manufacturers announce another advance of 15 cents per 100.

Bride Says "Yes" for Groom.

Kenosha.—There was an unusual marriage in Kenosha when Miss Pearl Johnson and Oscar Nero, both of Chicago, were united by Judge R. H. Sloan. Miss Johnson said she was 42 years of age and the groom 24. The groom was handicapped by the fact that he could not understand or speak English. The bride came to the front and insisted that she herself would act as interpreter. He was sworn and while the judge read the service the woman interpreted all of it, or at least such parts as she could hear, binding to the groom, and made the answers for him.

Broken Chief Gives Cew.

Marquette.—Three boys were under arrest on the charge of burglary in the store of Otto Leonardson. Marks of a broken chain led to the arrest.

Peculiar Food from the Sea.

Sea nettles, or jellyfish, that sting the paddlers at our seaside resorts, are held in special favor in France and Italy. Rolled in flour and cooked in oil, they afford most nutriment. Anecdotes and sea urchins are similarly esteemed from Spain to the East Indies.

Death of Mrs. Shaffner

Mrs. Lanny Shaffner of this city died very suddenly at Rhineland on Friday, having left here about three weeks ago for the purpose of visiting at the home of her son, M. T. Shaffner, at that point.

Mrs. Shaffner was seventy-six years of age and when she left here less than a month ago was in the best of health, and the news of her sudden death was a great surprise to her friends and relatives in this city, where she had lived for many years.

The remains arrived in the city on Saturday and the funeral was held on Monday from the Catholic church, Rev. B. H. Henschel officiating.

Mrs. Shaffner is survived by eleven children, five boys and six girls, they being William of Rhineland, John of Quebec, Michael of Rhineland and Thomas of Atlanta and Mrs. Dennis McCarthy of this city. Mrs. John Murphy, Mrs. John Murphy and Mrs. Thomas Dwyer of Rhineland and Miss Nora Shaffner of this city, the relatives from Quebec, were an also present on account of the distance and Mr. Shaffner of Rhineland was also unable to come on account of the serious illness of his child.

LOCALS WIN AGAIN.

Stevens Point Defeated by Score of 11 to 0 by High School Team From This City.

In an exciting game of football played at Stevens Point Saturday between the Stevens Point High school team and the local High school team, the latter won by a score of 11 to 0. The game was marred by frequent interruptions was one of the most exciting seen at Stevens Point, this season.

The Stevens Point boys were somewhat lighter than our sturdy bunch of fellows but nevertheless they put up a snappy performance, playing almost exclusively the forward pass, and the first half of the game was a fairly even contest. After the first ten minutes of play, Stevens Point was unable to make them in, forced 10 yards in three downs being turned to punt whenever they got possession of the ball, which was not very often while our boys made their gains by straight football, forcing the Stevens Point team down the field slowly but surely.

Stevens Point won the toss. Grand Rapids led off at Stevens Point down on their 35 yard line. They failed to gain the ball going to Grand Rapids who made their first ten yards by plunges then the line by Arpin Crow and Cororan. Then they sent Voyer around left a first down but no second and the ball was called down from five or six yards back in the hands of many Stevens Point players. (b) pointed out to the referee that a player is put offside if the ball in play has been touched by one of his own side he said this was evidently what the Stevens Pointers were waiting for, for it cut out the use of the line men for the purpose of carrying the ball thereby depriving Grand Rapids of two of their best ground game formations, their tackle plays. The ball then went to Stevens Point who made a spectacular 15 yard run around Grand Rapids left end but as the ball was carried by a player put offside by rule 10 (b), it was taken back to where the play was started from and given to Grand Rapids.

Young Runaways

A remarkable case came to the attention of the police on Thursday of last week when Officer Gibson received word from Wausau to the effect that two young girls from that city had run away from home and would probably pass through this city and for the police to look out for them. Mr. Gibson made inquiries and discovered that the parties he was in search of were on their way to this city and he found them on the St. Paul tracks a short distance from town.

The two girls were Jola and Alva Smith and when the officer ascertained that they denied any knowledge of what he was driving at, but later admitted that they were the parties that were wanted but claimed that they were 15 and 17 years of age and could leave home at they wanted to. Now even Mr. Gibson took them in charge and put them aboard a train that evening for Wausau. When questioned as to why they had left home, they stated that they were going to Minneapolis to live with a sister and that they had left home without any reason otherwise than that they wanted to live at Minneapolis as they had a friend from Wausau as far as Scholastic had a ride on the cars as far as Rudolph and had walked from Rudolph to this city. They were neatly and well dressed and apparently imagined that they could make their way to Minneapolis without trouble. Before leaving the older girl stated that their reason for leaving home was that their parents could not buy them the kind of clothes they wanted.

Will Have a Leader

At the meeting of the city council on Wednesday evening the city fathers appropriated the sum of $1.50 per month so that the local band might be able to hire a competent leader to conduct the organization in the future. The hope here have been in communication with Prof. Bliss who formerly led the band. Regrettably, Mr. Bliss is not at present at Marshfield and it is their expectation to secure the services of this gentleman to conduct the band here.

Mr. Bliss is a good man and should put our band in a condition to furnish the people with good music.

The day has gone by when an ordinary country band of ten or twelve men will furnish the music wanted by the public and the only way to do the thing properly is to have a man at the head of the organization who is making a life work of the business.

Not only was the meeting a success from the standpoint of attendance, but those from out of town spoke very highly of the affair and said that the instruction they received on that occasion was worth a great deal to them as school officers.

Death Rate Light

So far as we are concerned up to the present time the death rate among deer hunters has been rather light. There has been the case for several years past during the first few days of the season. A few casualties have been reported but not as many as is usual up to this time. Whether hunters are becoming more careful or that there is less to shoot at cannot be told.

One Drainage Ditch Finished. One of the big drainage ditches on the Vista Vista road has been completed. This is the long ditch that empties into what is known as Ten Mile Creek. Those who have visited the marsh during the past season report that the digging of this one ditch has made a wonderful difference in the amount of water in that locality, as the marsh has been comparatively dry in sections where heretofore there has been small lakes. Two ditches are now left at work, night and day.

Passenger Off the Track. The south-bound passenger on the Central road running between this city and Port Edwards, jumped the track near Port Edwards on Sunday morning. The train consisted of a locomotive and two cars, and the wheels on the engine jumped over the track for some distance before it was stopped, and the men who were going to Port Edwards were compelled to walk the remainder of the distance to their work.

It is not known what caused the accident and no damage was done to either the engine or cars, and nobody was hurt. The derailed rolling stock was gotten back onto the track the same day.

Mrs. Merrill and her son were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clifton. Mr. Clifton was filling a gasoline stove when the boy standing near him, stepped onto a match. In an instant there was a blaze and the boy was enveloped. In their efforts to save him the boy's mother and Mr. Clifton were badly burned. The boy's condition is critical. The mother and child were taken to the Emergency hospital. The house was slightly damaged.

Closing Out Sale of Millinery.
The Fall and Winter season of Millinery will be over in a few weeks and as I need the room for holiday goods, I shall start to close out my large millinery stock a little earlier than the millinery stores. I have now on hand nearly 200 pattern and home made hats, which I will offer at one-third off the regular price, which in most instances is below cost. Those who have waited until late will be amply repaid, for my selection is the larger than it has been at any time this season.

Sale Starts Friday, Nov. 16
And will continue until sold out.

How to Save FUEL
Briefly Buy a Cole's Hot Blast Coal Stove
It cuts the fuel bill in two because it burns the gas arising from burning coal. Gas goes via the chimney in other stoves. Cole's Hot Blast really makes 5500 soft coal work like good hard coal. Come in and see that smokeless feed door. Does away with draft, dust and smoke IN THE HOT SPOT.

Our entire line has a great reputation in this neighborhood because while our prices are cheap the goods are good.

HITCHCOCK TO RETIRE

J. R. GARFIELD WILL SUCCEED AS SECRETARY OF INTERIOR.

MOODY WILL BE JUSTICE

President Announces Appointment of Attorney General to the Supreme Bench to Succeed Justice Henry Billings Brown.

Washington.—Secretary of the Interior, Ethan Allen Hitchcock will retire from President Roosevelt's cabinet on the 14th of next March, and James H. Garfield, of Ohio, at present commissioner of corporations, will succeed him. Herbert Knox Smith, now assistant commissioner of corporations, will be appointed to Mr. Garfield's place. These changes and that of the retirement of Commissioner of the general land office on March 1 were announced in the following statement from the White House on Wednesday:

The secretary of the interior, Mr. Hitchcock, has informed the president that he would be unable to stay after March 4. Mr. Hitchcock has for some years been engaged in his official duties, and it is impossible for him much longer to remain. At the president's earnest request he consented to accept a re-appointment on March 1, 1905, at the time of the president's inauguration.

On arrival in St. Louis the Creightons were met by Mr. Creighton, and after proceeding to their place near St. Charles.

Most of those who had come in the boat remained for a time in St. Louis, but all seemed waiting—expecting, they knew not what.

For Winslow, there was nothing to do but wait, enough most eager to accept the Creightons' urgent hospitality. The governor was absent in the south; it was therefore, impossible for Winslow to deliver the packet which Aaron Burr had entrusted to him. But in his anxiety to know the whereabouts and arrival of Wilkinson, he made haste to call upon the deputy.

To his surprise, he was refused admission. Twice later he was denied with insufficient reason. Had an ill wind preceded him with tidings which made his presence difficult?

One night he strode impatiently up and down the vine-covered porch in front of the tavern. Dreading failure of the plans of Aaron Burr, he was made still more lonely by the loss of companionship which had grown so dear, and turned into sweet the bitter of exile.

Suddenly there was a clamor of boots outside, and two men dismounted at the wicket.

A boy ran forward to hold the horses, and the riders entered the yard. With eyes upon Winslow, they walked with steady business toward the house to stand. Then the taller threw aside a heavy cloak, displaying the dinky uniform of a sergeant. Laying a heavy hand upon Winslow's shoulder, he exclaimed: "You are my prisoner."

The officers started and gave a long whistle. "Perhaps this is the custom of your settlement," he said, "to arrest all persons found stirring after nightfall. This must be a free translation of the curfew, for I paid guilty only to being awake."

But the would-be culprit was not so easily disposed. "You will soon

The man with the rifle raised, then under brows that met in a sinister bar, he demanded: "How are you going to prove it? Show me a done any hurt?"

"How do you know the gun wasn't aimed at me?"

"By the bullet in the post. See!" and the octoroon pointed to where, elevated on a shelf, lay the lead ball drumly imbedded in the wood.

Winslow stepped alongside; it was just as high as his heart. All eyes were turned to the woman, who met the stare unflinchingly. Somebody cried: "She split a d—d good shot," and at this voicing of the general astonishment, an angry murmur rose.

"Accidents will happen, he said, and

Cowed by his experience with the

the deputy's house.

Here they waited in a gloomy room where prevailed neither pioneer sim-of both. Here were small barred win-cold, damp air within that to into afford opening for the sunlight. A few formal chairs mocked the visitor from a circle about a fireless hearth.

Announced by a cough, and a loud the military man, in authority. The sergeant, with good humor beam-corners of his childishly curved mouth.

No American born, evidently, but a heart by service under many flags.
